Vienna, October 3.

LEtters from the Camp before Temeſwaer of the 25th of September give an Account, that on the 23d three Bridges were carried on over the Ditch of the Palank. The ſame Day Count Palfi gave Notice, that as well by ſome Horſe ſent out for Intelligence, as by a Party of Huſſars who had been driven into the Camp; he was aſſured that a Body of the Enemy was advancing to attack his Quarter: Hereupon Prince Eugene of Savoy went immediately thither, leaving Order for the Brigade of Maximilian Staremberg, conſiſting of 11 Battalions, which lay neareſt, and were out of Sight of the Beſieged, to follow him, together with 20 Field-Pieces. The Enemy approaching between 12 and 1, made a fierce Attack on that Part of the Camp where Count Palfi has his Station; but tho' they returned thrice to the Charge, they were repulſed by our Cavalry poſted in the Lines of Circumvallation, with the Loſs of a good Number of the Turks, ſeveral of them Officers, and with very inconſiderable Loſs on our Side. In the Evening the Garriſon of the Place made a Sally with Foot and Horſe; but ſome Squadrons moving up againſt them, they retired. On the 24th Prince Eugene ſent out a Detachment of Horſe, who returning reported, that they had been four Leagues from the Camp without meeting one Enemy: And by their Account, as well as by the Examination of the Priſoners taken the Day before, it appeared that the Number of the Enemy who attacked Count Palfi's Quarter, was 20000 Spahis, 500 Janiſaries, and 7 or 8000 Tartars, who had been encouraged by Money diſtributed among them to make that Attempt. The Heads of the Bridges, or Galleries, over the Ditch of the Palank, had been damaged by the Enemy's Fire, but were repairing and perfecting in Order to an Aſſault. The 1ſt Inſtant being the Emperour's Birth-day, on which he entred into the 31ſt Year of his Age, was celebrated at Court with all Magnificence. On the 2d arrived here from the Army Count Tierheim, Commiſſary General of War, to confer with the Council about the Repartition of Winter Quarters for the Imperial Troops.

Copenhagen, Oct. 10. On the 6th Inſtant the King of Denmark took a Review of his whole Army, which ſtill continues encamped near this City; but in all Appearance they will very ſhortly go into Winter Quarters, the Ruſſian Troops having been all embarked ſome Days, and lying in our Road for a fair Wind: They are to be convoyed by the Daniſh Fleet to Roſtock. The Czar and his Conſort continue here, but 'tis ſaid they will ſhortly go to Swerin; where leaving his Conſort (who is near her Time of lying in) his Czariſh Majeſty will take a Journey to Holland.

Hambourg, Oct. 13. M. Pouſſin, the Envoy of France reſiding here, has newly acquainted the Reſident of Denmark, that the moſt Chriſtian King will keep an exact Neutrality, with reſpect to the Troubles of the North; and that he the ſaid Envoy was ordered to obſerve ſuch Meaſures as ſhould give the Danes no Cauſe of Complaint. Yeſterday at the Requeſt of the Muſcovite Reſident, the Officers of this City ſeized Count Wonnioſofski, Nephew of Mazeppa late General of the Coſſacks, who together with his Uncle deſerted the Czar's Service and followed the King of Sweden to Bender. The ſaid Count having a Commiſſion from the King of Sweden, has been reclaimed by the Swediſh Miniſter. Baron Kurſzoc, the Imperial Miniſter here, received Advice Yeſterday by an Expreſs from Vienna, that the Palank of Temeſwaer was carried by Aſſault on the 1ſt Inſtant being the Emperour's Birth day, the Turks who defended it being put to the Sword.

Hampton-

Hampton-Court, Oct. 11. This Day Count Guicciardi, Envoy Extraordinory from the Duke of Modena, had a private Audience of Leave of Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales; to which he was conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.
